CALL FOR PAPERS

The Rimini Centre for Economic Analysis (RCEA) invites papers to be considered for the RCEF2018: the Rimini Conference in Economics and Finance. RCEF is our main biennial conference, assembling a group of leading economists to present and discuss their work at the cutting edge of economic research. It has alternated between Italy and Canada. RCEF2018 will take place at Rimini Palacongressi, Rimini, Italy, 14-15 June 2018.

The keynote speakers at the conference are Michael B. Devereux, a leading international economist specializing in macroeconomics and finance, and Lawrence Schembri, Deputy Governor at the Bank of Canada, responsible for overseeing the Bank's analysis and activities to promote a stable and efficient financial system.

SUBMISSIONS

The Centre welcomes submissions for the contributed sessions in all areas of economics and finance, including monetary and fiscal policies, experimental economics, business cycles analysis, international trade and finance, public economics, public finance, general equilibrium, game theory, environmental economics, industrial organization, labour economics, health economics, economic geography, regional development and economics of tourism. RCEF2018 will run in parallel to the 5th RCEA Time Series Econometrics Workshop and the 12th RCEA Bayesian Workshop, all held at Rimini Palacongressi. Papers in all areas of econometrics should be submitted to one of these workshops. Participants to RCEF2018 will have access to all sessions of the Bayesian and Time Series Workshops, and vice versa.

Authors should submit an extended abstract of up to 500 words or a complete paper. Please include keywords with the submission. In case of more than one author the name of the presenter should be underlined.

To submit a paper please send the paper or extended abstract to secretary@rcea.org

Proposals for sessions, consisting of three or four papers, are particularly welcome. If you are interested in submitting a session, please send the session topic, paper titles, abstracts and names of authors to secretary@rcea.org

Submission deadline: 26 April 2018.

Notification of acceptance: Authors will be notified by the workshop scientific committee's decision by 3 May 2018.

Authors coming from countries with special visa requirements should specify so in their submission so that they can be notified as soon as possible.

There are no submission fees.

REGISTRATION

Registration will start on 3rd of May 2018 on the workshop website www.rcea.org

The registration fee for the workshop is:

Students: EURO € 90

RCEA Senior Fellows and Fellows: EURO €180

Others: EURO € 280

Late Fee: EURO €380

Late fee will be applied to all registrations received after 8th June 2018.

FURTHER INFORMATION

The registration fee for participation in the workshop will help cover expenses associated with general logistics, coffee/tea, and special meals/events. The fee includes the conference kit, the certificate of attendance, workshop meals and coffee breaks.

Review of Economic Analysis (REA), www.RofEA.org, an open access journal published by RCEA, is planning to publish a special issue from the conference. Papers submitted to the special issue will go through the usual refereeing process. REA charges no submission or publication fees.

On-line registration will be possible. All the conference rooms will be equipped with screen, projector, computer and overhead projector. Rimini offers excellent choices of accommodation near its beaches and its historic centre. RCEA has blocked off a large number of rooms at various hotels in Rimini at reduced rate. The accommodation list and the booking form, as well as other details, will be available at the RCEA web site after February 28th. Conference participants can book their stay at the preferential rates available to the Centre.

Information about past workshops and RCEA activities can be found at <http://www.rcea.org/>
