CALL FOR PAPERS

The Research Centre for Economic Analysis (RCEA) invites papers to be considered for the 3rd Warsaw Money- Macro-Finance Conference at University of Warsaw, Warsaw, Poland. The conference, originally planned for 2020, will be held online on 3rd-4th of June 2021. The conference will use CET (Central European Time).

We invite papers in all areas of macroeconomics and finance, including monetary and fiscal policies, business cycles analysis, general equilibrium, growth theory, financial analysis. The main objective of this meeting is to stimulate cooperation of researchers from all over the world. Young economists are particularly encouraged to apply.

PAPER SUBMISSIONS

Keynote speakers

Emi Nakamura is the Chancellor's Professor of Economics at University of California, Berkeley, a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a research associate and co-director of the Monetary Economics Program of the NBER and a co-editor of the American Economic Review. She was awarded the John Bates Clark Medal in 2019, the Elaine Bennett Research Prize in 2014 and was named one of the top 25 economists under 45 in 2014 by the IMF and one of "the decade's eight best young economists" in 2018 by The Economist. She has been awarded an NSF Career Grant and Sloan Research Fellowship. Emi Nakamura's work focuses on empirical macroeconomics, price stickiness and the effects of macroeconomic policies.

Jordi Galí is Director and Senior Researcher at the Center for Research in International Economics (CREI), Professor at Universitat Pompeu Fabra and Research Professor at the Barcelona GSE. He is a Research Fellow at CEPR, a Research Associate at NBER, and a Fellow of the Econometric Society. He has served as a co-editor of the Journal of the European Economic Association. In 2012 he served as President of the European Economic Association. He is a regular consultant to the ECB, the Sveriges Riksbank and the Norges Bank. Jordi Galí's research interests include Macroeconomics and Monetary Theory, and has published articles on these topics in numerous scientific journals.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

The Research Centre for Economic Analysis (RCEA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to the advancement of research in economics and other social sciences. It is a newly created international centre with chapters in Canada, at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario; in Poland, at the University of Warsaw and in Italy, at the University of Siena.

RCEA envisions to become a network of academics and policymakers that collaborate to apply cutting-edge theoretical and empirical research relevant to economic policy. The centre welcomes diverse views on how to realize this goal. RCEA sponsors high quality research linkages in both interdisciplinary and international dimensions. We encourage long-term affiliation with the centre, and strongly support the active involvement of graduate students and new PhDs.

RCEA is directed by the Board. Members of the Board have extensive experience with organizing conferences. Past speakers at these conferences included, among others, Philippe Aghion, Costas Azariadis, Giuseppe Bertola, Steven Cecchetti, Steven J. Davis, Mick Devereux, Emmanuel Farhi, Sergei Guriev, John Haltiwanger, Elhanan Helpman, Peter Howitt, Charles Jones, Larry Karp, Josh Lerner, Florencio López de Silanes, Enrique Mendoza, Robert Mundell, Brian O'Neill, Hashem Pesaran, Morten Ravn, Uwe Renhardt, James Robinson, Barbara Rossi, Stephanie Schmidt-Grohe and Volker Wieland.

Information about RCEA can be found at www.RCEA.org
