Plenary speakers

Janice Eberly is the James R. and Helen D. Russell Professor of Finance Kellog School of Business, Northwestern University. She served as the Assistant Secretary for Economic Policy at the U.S. Treasury from 2011 to 2013 and was the Chief Economist at the Treasury. Professor Eberly's research focuses on finance and macroeconomics. Her work studies firms' capital budgeting decisions and household consumption and portfolio choice. She is a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Editor of the Brookings Papers on Economic Activity.

James A. Robinson is the Reverend Dr. Richard L. Pearson Professor of Global Conflict Studies and University Professor, University of Chicago. He is a world renowned specialist in governance, growth and development. He is the co-author (with Daron Acemoglu) of the highly praised books Economic Origins of Dictatorship and Democracy (translated into 32 languages) and Why Nations Fail. His work explores the underlying relationship between poverty and the institutions of a society and how institutions emerge out of political conflicts.

John van Reenen is Ronald Coase School Professor at the London School of Economics. In 2016 he was appointed Officer of the Order of the British Empire for services to Economics and Public Policy Making, and in 2009 was awarded the Yrjö Jahnsson Award, a biennial award for the best European economist under the age of 45. He has published over 100 peer-reviewed articles in the economics of innovation, productivity, labour economics, industrial economics, and econometrics. His work is frequently reported on in the media in the UK and overseas.

About the Research Centre for Economic Analysis

The Research Centre for Economic Analysis (RCEA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to the advancement of research in economics and other social sciences. It is an international centre with chapters in Canada, at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario; in Poland, at the University of Warsaw and in Italy, at the University of Siena.

RCEA envisions to become a network of academics and policymakers who collaborate to apply cutting-edge theoretical and empirical research relevant to economic policy. The centre welcomes diverse views on how to realize this goal. RCEA sponsors high quality research linkages in both interdisciplinary and international dimensions. We encourage long-term affiliation with the centre, and we especially encourage participation of graduate students. The centre strongly supports the active involvement of graduate students and new PhDs.

To achieve these goals, RCEA organizes conferences, webinars and seminars at which leading economists, policymakers, industry practitioners, students, and other scholars can exchange and develop new insights and ideas. We are committed to the unrestricted exchange of research results and ideas, and our work is freely available online. Through outreach activities, we disseminate the results of our members’ research to the decision makers and the general public.

RCEA official journal is the Review of Economic Analysis (REA). Review of Economic Analysis is an open access, ABDC-ranked, peer-reviewed quarterly publication. RCEA aims to promote its further development as a top open access, general interest journal in the profession.

RCEA is generously supported by Wilfrid Laurier University and by the Lazaridis School of Business and Economics.

About the Lazaridis Institute

The Lazaridis Institute for the Management of Technology Enterprises is based at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Canada. Our mission is to increase domestic prosperity by making Canadian technology entrepreneurs globally competitive. Our vision is to be the global authority on the management of high-growth technology firms. Launched in 2016 with investments by Mike Lazaridis and the Government of Ontario, the Lazaridis Institute supports Canadian tech firms through research, programming and education.
